Dance It...The Moment is Everything

"The moment is everything. Don't think about tomorrow; don't think about yesterday: think about exactly what you're doing right now and live it and dance it and breath it and be it." Wendy Whelan

Inspired by this quote 4 dance artists will create a new dance work in an experimental collaboration for a brand new community dance group based at Marina Studios. The new piece will be performed locally and a film of the work will be screened in several locations and online.

About Marina Studios

We are the Dance Destination of the South. Offering world class teachers and choreographers. Workshops, masterclasses and regular classes, we can cater for all your dance needs.

About Dance It: The moment is everything

We realised there were no performance opportunities or community dance groups for people who aren't young or old! So we've created this new dance club for non-professional dancers aged 25-65. Each week the dance group will meet to work with a team of 4 dance artists to make a brand new short dance to be performed at community events over summer/autumn 22. We want to capture this experience on film.

One of the artists will act as a lead artist to guide the direction of the filming and be your point of contact.

Fee: 6 days x £270 - £1650 total

We are seeking a film maker who can

- Capture the final performance
- Film short segments of the choreography being taught by the artists for members of the public to engage with
- Make a short documentary about the making of the work with mini interviews from the partners and dancers
